about

ANGELO CAROLI

After a decade of experience in the fitness world especially in the United States, Angelo Caroli has created a personal path of success that has led to the affirmation of its business reality based on its conceptual and organizational METHOD from which derive the exclusive collections.

If I were to say that the achievement of wellness is not the result of a mathematical logic and that the recipe for good health and good shape does not exist, I would only be saying the truth. Nevertheless, I would go against the work of my whole life, spent looking for a method to improve the quality of the life of our customers. The truth, as usual, lies somewhere in between. That is, in my opinion, codifying the grids of a method that will be applied to the specific needs and features of every single person.

This is the belief that has led me to the elaboration of the philosophy of Angelo Caroli Method, which is applied in our centres. These are places where we go far beyond the simple concept of gym where you practice sport and of beauty centre: here you can change your lifestyle.

“Wellness, my mission.”

ANGELO CAROLI created a NEW METHOD which aims to the “GLOBAL WELLNESS” of the individual and his health, by fusing:

physical, mental, emotional and spiritual activities which are intimately related.

For this reason the care of a physical disorder must consider not only the general body, but also the emotional sphere and the social, cultural, spiritual, environmental contexts in which the person lives.

THE METHOD

THE EXTRAORDINARY CELEBRATION OF THE SELF

Fitness and its basic principles

such as the training techniques for mind and body, recovering harmony in the “self”.

One's self esteem

takes care of the well-known phenomenon defined as “stress” representing one of the main causes of sickness and disease.

The olistic point of view

considers man as an inextricable compound of cells, energy and spirit in permanent evolution.

The expression of luxury

as the feeling of going through an extraordinary experience.

Stylish amenity kit to offer to your passengers, created in collaboration with Italian leather accessory brand, Angelo Caroli. Not only designed to be used during the flight, but especially afterwards, as you may keep them as a small pouch to keep your accessories or pass them on as a gift to a loved one or a friend.

The contents of the kit include essential skincare products (hand cream, lip balm and face mist), a small perfume for a long haul travel produced by well-known Milan based perfume and lifestyle company, Angelo Caroli, a dental kit, an oversized eye mask, comb, shoehorn, socks, earplugs, mouthwash, a face mask, hand sanitizer and wipes by the French hygiene brand Dr. Phi, a pen, tissue pack, and a discount code for some products.

Efficiently packed to not take too much space onboard. Lightweight materials, ensuring practicality to cabin crew. Smart design that fits nicely in a tray and in the passenger's bag.

Available in 5 different colors and a new design is added every year.
